

k-love provides encouragment to go through the whole day.You hear music that is uplifting without any advertisements.I am rather tired of screening the radio channels and tv commercials that are not fit for my child.With K-love ,no screening is required.I can switch it on at any time without fearing improper comments or language.At times when I have felt depressed ,K-love lifts me up like no other radio station.
K-love is great.